Allegheny Energy to Webcast Conference Call to Discuss Plans to Acquire Enron Generating Plants

Editor's Note: The time of the webcast has been revised to 3 p.m. (EST)

Hagerstown, Md., November 14, 2000 – Allegheny Energy, Inc. (NYSE: AYE) plans to hold an analyst conference call at 3 p.m. (EST) on November 15 to discuss details of the planned acquisition of 1,710 megawatts of merchant generating capacity by its unregulated generation subsidiary, Allegheny Energy Supply Company, LLC, from Enron North America. Allegheny Energy Supply and Enron have signed a definitive agreement under which Allegheny Energy Supply will purchase the generating assets at three of Enron's gas-fired generating facilities for an undisclosed amount. Investors, the news media, and others may listen to a live internet broadcast of the call at www.alleghenyenergy.com or www.streetevents.com by clicking on an available audio link. The call will also be archived on the Company's web site for replay purposes for 10 working days after the live broadcast. A news release on the planned acquisition of the generating facilities is also available on the Company's web site for review.
