FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Allegheny Energy Completes $967 Million Debt Refinancing

GREENSBURG, Pa., May 3, 2006 – Allegheny Energy, Inc. (NYSE: AYE) today announced that its subsidiary, Allegheny Energy Supply Company, LLC, has obtained a new $967 million credit facility. Proceeds were used to refinance its existing $967 million secured term loan, due 2011. The refinancing will reduce interest expense by approximately $6 million per year.

The new $200 million senior revolving credit facility and $767 million senior term loan both have five-year maturities. Both the revolving credit facility and the term loan will carry an initial interest rate equal to the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 87.5 basis points, with decreases in the rate possible if the company's credit ratings improve from current levels. The $967 million term loan being refinanced had an interest rate of LIBOR plus 150 basis points.

Joint lead arrangers for the refinancing were Citigroup Global Markets Inc., The Bank of Nova Scotia and Banc of America Securities LLC.

Forward-Looking Statements

In addition to historical information, this release contains a number of "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as anticipate, expect, project, intend, plan, believe, and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions, or events identify forward-looking statements. These include statements with respect to: rate regulation and the status of retail generation service supply competition in states served by Allegheny Energy's distribution business, Allegheny Power; financing plans; demand for energy and the cost and availability of raw materials, including coal; provider-of-last-resort and power supply contracts; results of litigation; results of operations; internal controls and procedures; capital expenditures; status and condition of plants and equipment; capacity purchase commitments; regulatory matters; and accounting issues. Forward-looking statements involve estimates, expectations and projections and, as a result, are subject to risks and uncertainties. There can be no assurance that actual results will not materially differ from expectations. Actual results have varied materially and unpredictably from past expectations. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, among others, the following: plant performance and unplanned outages; changes in the price of power and fuel for electric generation; general economic and business conditions; changes in access to capital markets; complications or other factors that render it difficult or impossible to obtain necessary lender consents or regulatory authorizations on a timely basis; environmental regulations; the results of regulatory proceedings, including proceedings related to rates; changes in industry capacity, development and other activities by Allegheny Energy's competitors; changes in the weather and other natural phenomena; changes in customer switching behavior and their resulting effects on existing and future load requirements; changes in the underlying inputs and assumptions, including market conditions used to estimate the fair values of commodity contracts; changes in laws and regulations applicable to Allegheny Energy, its markets or its activities; the loss of any significant customers or suppliers; dependence on other electric transmission and gas transportation systems and their constraints or availability; changes in PJM, including changes to participant rules and tariffs; the effect of accounting policies issued periodically by accounting standard-setting bodies; and the continuing effects of global instability, terrorism and war. Additional risks and uncertainties are identified and discussed in Allegheny Energy's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
